DID YOU KNOW?

America's First Federally-Chartered Credit Union was Organized in Texarkana

That's right, Morris Sheppard Texarkana Federal Credit Union, located in downtown Texarkana, Texas, is Charter #1 among the National Credit Union Administration's directory of federal credit unions.

Morris Sheppard Texarkana Federal Credit Union was named after U.S. Senator Morris Sheppard. Sheppard moved to Texarkana in 1899, where he resided until death. Sheppard served on the U.S. Senate from 1913 to 1941, during which time he was one of the federal credit union movement's biggest supporters. In fact, Sheppard assisted in drafting and passing the Federal Credit Union Act. Signed into law on June 26, 1934, the Federal Credit Union Act allowed for creation of a national system to charter and supervise federal credit unions. Today, the National Credit Union Administration supervises over 6,000 federal credit unions.

Leadercast

YOU...

when you register for Leadercast 2018—where you will learn the lessons of LEADING YOURSELF from an outstanding line-up of global leaders.

Why should you care?

In a recent online webinar, Leadership guru John Maxwell made it clear when he said:

“The price tag of leadership is SELF-DISCIPLINE; my biggest leadership challenge is ME! ... Everything worthwhile is uphill; nothing is easy. Self-discipline ENABLES you to go uphill.”

- Leading oneself - self-discipline - makes excellence possible.
- Finally and most significantly: (and this from one the world's foremost leadership mentors and trainers), he says: “There is nothing I can do for a person who lacks self-discipline!”

Bottom line for leadership:
Wisdom to LEAD YOURSELF is where it begins.

Food Faves

Best sandwich in Texarkana (...so far) is Pecan Point's Monte Cristo Croissant. It's a delicious flaky croissant layered with black forest ham, Swiss cheese & aioli dressing, dipped in vanilla-bean egg batter & fried. The accompanying side items are a raspberry-chipotle sauce (for dipping) and a red pear salad. This will make your taste buds sing and dance.
